EFFECTIVE ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT

Embedding environmental management into core business practices will deliver real commercial benefits. Consultancy Eshcon advises companies on reducing your impact and saving money.

All organisations can improve efficiency and find those all important cost savings. Plus everyone is affected by environmental legislation. Most companies can easily reduce energy costs by up to 20%; this could be the same effect on the bottom line as a 5% increase in sales.

I work with a range of sectors, from micros to multinationals. Environmental management is relevant to all organisations.

Happy Clients

“Anya managed the project seamlessly with enthusiastic expertise, meeting the tight legislative deadline by finding solutions to overcome difficulties. The ESOS Report has provided us with real business-benefit improvements. Working with Anya was an absolute pleasure and I would readily recommend Eshcon.”
